I voluntarily wish to withdraw my application for the following reasons:

I understand that IRCC will make a determination on whether this request will be accepted, postponed or denied.

I understand that if my request to withdraw my application is accepted, there will be no further processing of my application and my application will be closed. I understand that if my request to withdraw my application is accepted, a citizenship officer and/or citizenship judge will not make a decision nor provide reasons, nor consider whether or not to waive or recommend that certain requirements be waived under the Citizenship Act. I understand that if I wish to reapply for citizenship, I will have to submit a new application and fees.

I understand that if my request to withdraw my application is accepted, the application processing fee will not be refunded if processing has begun. I understand that I will be entitled to a refund of the Right of Citizenship fee, if it was paid.

I understand that my request to withdraw my application may be denied or may be postponed if I am currently under investigation for a prohibition under the Citizenship Act that results in a bar on future applications [such as paragraph 22(1)(e.1) for misrepresentation] or if I have been issued a procedural fairness letter or communications in connection with a prohibition under the Citizenship Act that results in a bar on future applications.

I understand that if there is anything in this form that I do not understand, I may choose to consult with a person who is referred to in subsections 21.1(2) to (4) of the Citizenship Act (i.e. a lawyer, a notary or a member of the IRCC) before signing this form.

I have read the above statement, understand its implications, and wish to submit my request to voluntarily request the withdrawal of my citizenship application.
