

DOCUMENT CHECKLIST

PERMANENT RESIDENCE - PROVINCIAL NOMINEE CLASS

Note: You must apply under the Non Express-Entry Provincial Nominee Program online.

This document is available in PDF format only.

Gather your documents as mentioned on the checklist and check each item.

You'll need to upload this form and other PDF documents with your application. Some forms will be completed as part of the online application. You will not need to complete PDF versions of these forms.

Sign in or create a Permanent Residence online application portal account using this link.

If your documents are not English or French, you must include the English or French translation with a certified copy of the original document, and an affidavit from the person who completed the translation (if the translation is not provided by a member in good standing of a provincial or territorial organization of translators and interpreters in Canada).

The checklist of required documents is subject to change. Applicants are advised to refer the IRCC website periodically when preparing their submission to ensure that they have included all documents listed on the most up-to-date checklist.

Forms and supporting documents (to be completed and submitted by all applicants).

Consult our Web site for specific instructions on how to complete the questions on each of the following forms.

 Important: If you can't provide one or more documents required on the document checklist, you must provide a written explanation for each missing document so your application is not delayed in processing or returned to you as incomplete. You must also provide any other evidence or documents you have available to satisfy the requirement. Upload them as the document type that was asked for.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Answer all questions and sign all forms where applicable. Please note that by signing these documents, you are certifying that all information provided therein, whether prepared by you or not, is complete and true in all respects.

If you or someone acting on your behalf directly or indirectly submits false documents or misrepresents facts relating to your application for a permanent resident visa:

- your application may be refused;
- the circumstances of your refusal will be entered into Canada's global immigration database; and
- you and your family members could become inadmissible to Canada for five years under section 40(2) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

The officer will base their decision on the documents on file at the time of the assessment. After sending in your applications, it is your responsibility to notify the office processing your case and provide the relevant supporting documentation if there are changes in your life circumstances such as:

- family status (e.g. marriage or common-law union, divorce, annulment, legal separation, birth, adoption, death of the principal applicant or any accompanying family member, including grandchildren born to dependent children); or
- mailing address/e-mail address/contact information.

Any changes which we have not been informed of will delay processing or may result in the refusal of the application or the exclusion of a family member.

 Note: All applicable documents listed below are required.
You must keep a copy of the completed forms and all documents that you will submit.
