

Something doesn't look right?

Report fraud in federal government contracting

www.canada.ca/report-contract-fraud

Cheating or fraudulent activity in federal contracts can include:

Bid-rigging: Secretly agreeing on bids with competing suppliers to manipulate the outcome of a procurement process.

Bribery: Offering or giving something of value to a government employee to influence a contract decision.

Conflict of interest: Awarding contracts improperly or in a non-competitive way for personal gain.

False invoicing: Billing for goods or services that were not actually provided.

Price-fixing: Agreeing with competing suppliers to raise or fix prices charged for goods or services.

Product switching: Secretly providing inferior products.

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada

Canada